Please Note

There will be no services at St George's during the entire month of July.

My dear People of WWW

There are plenty of things going on in the parish over winter. Synod will be in full swing over this weekend, while next week I will be away at Trinity Theological College Melbourne to attend a midyear intensive, (I will take study leave for these days). This unit is named, "Modern Theologians" and falls under the Field of Christian thought & history. There are three other fields, these are Humanities, Biblical Studies and Mission and Ministry, with students being required to successfully complete units in each field. If you are ever in the city and have some time on your hands I would encourage you to go and have a look at Trinity College, and also the Dalton McGaughely theological library at Pilgrim College, which is where the Uniting Church train their ministers. If you happen to be down next week give me call and I will show you around, or feel free to join us for Morning Prayer at 9am in the chapel.

Fr Clarence will preside over the Tuesday Holy Eucharist service and bible study, and chair Parish council on Tuesday night. I will be back on Friday night, theologically inspired and enthused to preach and preside for the weekend services. Many thanks to Clarence for making this possible for me to attend these classes, as I am getting to the pointy end of my studies and find that I am running out of choices for units that I can do.

There will be no services at St George's for the entire month of July, with several parishioners away and those who are staying deciding to attend St Paul's or St Michael's.

St Paul's will be holding it's Patronal Festival on July 1, this will be followed by lunch at the Glenrowan pub, please let Lynn Gent know as soon as possible if you would like to come for lunch, as booking is required.

Every Blessing, Paul Hobby
