Cup Day Luncheon

Dear People of WWW

Lisa, the girls and I attended our first end of year concert this week, and in light of what is to come, I thought I would write a "Pre-Christmas / end of year" appeal, that we please consider making sure that we purposely tell ourselves to enjoy Christmas!

Enjoy Christmas for all that it means as a Christian, and also enjoy Christmas for the joy of the season, the joy of seeing family and loved ones, the joy of coming together to meet and let us also give ourselves permission to take the time to spend quality time with those who we may not see all that often.

Christmas can be difficult too for some families, perhaps this little piece of advice I heard one day - that we all should all lower our expectations of each other around Christmas!

Perhaps ask ourselves, is what I am expecting of the other fair? I can only say that this has worked for us in the past, that we just enjoy whatever time we get with family, even if it is only a phone call or a card because of distance, time and money.

Let us too, be mindful of those who may be alone this Christmas and consider opening our homes.

Every Blessing, Paul Hobby.
