Please note this will be the only service in the parish.

Dear people of WWW,
It is good to be back from retreat!
Have you ever thought of going on a retreat yourself?

I have heard that a few people have, and also that the diocese has run retreats in the past for interested people. I think the single best thing about going or “Retreating” is to come away and allow God to speak to us, especially to those things that are most important to us at this time.

Next week is an important week for me, as I begin a new journey as a “Novice Oblate”, one of the things that drew me to the priesthood was not only my Grandfather on my Father’s side, but also his involvement with the sisters at Taminick.

I love these verses from the psalms, “Deep calls to Deep” & “How great are your works O Lord! Drought Relief

At Parish Council it was decided that we should “do something” for drought relief, and agreed to a retiring collection taken up over the following weeks, 23rd, 30th Sept & 7th Oct. It would be appreciated to keep this in books that comment further on how to do this in our day. Every Blessing,

Paul Hobby.
