Dear people of WWW
This Sunday marks the last of the gospel readings from John 6,

I am sure we are all ready for a change!

In my sermon this Sunday, I thought I would recap the last four Sundays.

Jesus’ claims make a lot more sense to us now, than they would have for his audience at the time. Sure, they were well aware of the manna from heaven, but Jesus claims went a lot further than God simply supplying food in the desert, even though Jesus had proven himself by feeding the five thousand just prior to our current readings. Jesus’ claim that unless we eat his flesh and drink his blood we have no life in us demands that we take a huge leap of faith that he is who he claims to be!

I think two passages of scripture speak of this, Hebrews 11:6 “And without faith it is impossible to please God, for whoever would approach him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.” and this, for comfort, from Mark’s gospel, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

When I studied prayer book studies, one of the questions that was asked was, “Did Jesus institute the first Eucharist?”

My answer was, well of course he did, in the last supper.

We remember this in our Eucharistic prayers, of course, others had different opinions and you may think differently to me on this matter too.

Every Blessing, Paul Hobby
